

Take a Walk on the Wildside

Join Photographer Bruce Spirit Park & Wreck for an interpretive hike Spirit Park, and help Research in the name of much of his youth hiking against Leukemia on Shane's mother, helping raise money

McPherson along with Pacific Beach advocate Judy Williams through the trails of Pacific raise funds for Leukemia Shane Drinkwine who spent these trails. Shane lost his fight September 16th, 2004. Pamela Gauthier, has been to save other children ever since.

When: Noon Sunday May 18th, 2008

Where: Start and finish at:
39th Avenue & Camosun Street, Vancouver BC

The hike is approximately 20 km and will follow the Trails of Pacific Spirit Park to Beach Trail 4, then along the foreshore to Acadia Trail and back through the forest to 39th and Camosun. Wear good footwear. Bring water and lunch. This hike will take around 6 hours. There are limited facilities along the way, so be prepared.

For more information contact: Bruce McPherson:
bruce_mcpherson@telus.net

Donations to Pamela's Campaign to help find a cure for Leukemia can be made through her web page:

<http://www.active.com/donate/tnttor/tnttorPGauthi>